Chase McMurphy is an offensive forward who possesses soft hands and is quite speedy. He is able to use his speed and hands to create scoring opportunities for himself by being able to beat opposing players one on one. Although Chase is not a solid defensive forward, he does have good defensive zone positioning, and is used in a limited capacity on the penalty kill. Being one of the bigger players in the AMBHL Chase needs to use his size to his advantage. He should be playing a more physical game and using his size to drive hard to the net and make life difficult for opposing defencemen and goalies. Chase also needs to make better decisions with the puck. Too many turnovers resulting in scoring opportunities against, and also too many failed odd man rushes because Chase opts to shoot instead of trying to make the pass.
