Dakota Trauter is a solid forward, who plays well at both end of the ice. Dakota has a long reach and average speed. Dakota is not a physical player, but can work on that as he adds size to his frame. Defensively Dakota has good positioning in his own zone; however he could back-check harder. In the offensive zone Dakota moves the puck well and applies good fore-checking pressure. Dakota has soft hands, showing good passing ability and a quick release shot.
