Trent Geiger is an excellent two way forward. Trent is a smooth skater who has good acceleration and speed which he uses effectively to create scoring chances and to support his team defensively. Trent has a great offensive zone presence; he applies good forechecking pressure, sees the ice and moves the puck well, and battles hard down low along the boards and in the corners. Trent is a great passer who uses all of his options whether he is making an outlet pass or setting up on the power play in the offensive zone. Trent plays the game with a physically effective style. Trent makes his hits count, usually resulting in a turnover for his team. Defensively Trent is very responsible and does everything from, being the first forward back, covering for pinching defensemen, and working hard in the corners in his own end. Trent's feet are always moving and he is subsequently involved in the play at all times. Trent could work on his work in the face-off circle as he wins only about 60% of the face-offs he takes.
