Summation: Excellent frame and size, appears to be very athletic. Good overall pitch mix. Good command and control with all pitches, but needs more velo and movement especially on fastball. Batters were making solid contact 2nd and 3rd time through. Delivery and release point solid and consistent. Solid presence and game place with runners on base. Average hitter, good plate and zone discipline with smooth level swing. Had severe back fracture/injury last year, still trying to regain form. Overall very talented pitcher, needs work to regain time missed due to back injury and more consistency. Should pass on this year's draft and wait to see how performs at next level.
