Summation: Good frame and size, room to grow. Limited pitch mix. Overall good command and control with fastball (tends to lose when tired), with good arm side run when on, but needs more velo and control in later innings. Slider has potential but tends to drop out of zone too early before reaching plate. Delivery and release point can get inconsistent, but practicably unhittable once in a groove. Solid presence and game place with runners on base. Most polished HS pitcher, current OBA about 100 points less than national ave. (.175 v. .272 national ave.). Batters were making solid contact 2nd and 3rd time through, most likely due to losing stamina and focus. Above average hitter, good plate and zone discipline with smooth level swing. Overall very talented pitcher, tough to gage based on level of talent, currently pitching in Class 3A level (pitched against some 4A non-competitive teams). Maybe late Day 3 selection based on being most polished pitcher in state, but should see how performs against higher level(s) in Collegiate Division I.
